

November 19, 2022 Holiday in Lights 5K Information

IMPORTANT POST 5K INFO: We will have a similar post race layout as in 2021 with smaller non-heated tents.

This year we will be providing granola bars, cookies, fruit, bottled water, hot chocolate and coffee. Jake Sweeney's Shamrockers will be there to join in the fun!

TIME: Runners and walkers begin at 5 pm, Walkers, please start behind the runners. 1 Mile Walkers begin at 5:20pm at our light show entrance

WHERE: Armco Park in Warren County

PARKING: All parking will be inside Armco Park. Please refer to the map below for specific parking areas. If 5K participants need to leave immediately after they finish, please park in the Early Exit Parking area. If the 1-Mile Walk participants don't wish to attend the post race party, you can park in the 1 Mile Walk Parking area since you will be exiting the light show near that parking area. We suggest getting to the park early!

WHAT TO WEAR: Holiday Costume, Christmas gear, or your 5K shirt! The costume contest is judged at 4:30 pm with prizes in the following categories: Best Adult Female, Best Child Female, Best Adult Male, Best Child Male, Best Group

AWARDS: Awards will be presented to the Top 5 Overall Male and Top 5 Female Participants as well as the costume contest winners

BENEFICIARIES: Reach Out Lakota, Operation Give Back and The Warren County Park District

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- Race is rain or shine
- No Pets Allowed
- Strollers are welcomed behind the runners
- If you have questions at the event, look for volunteers in the bright colored vests
